THE KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.

Opening of the Grand Conclave at Denver To-Day—The City Crowded With People.

Great Procession of the Knights—Fifty Thousand Men March Through the Streets.

A Vast Concourse—The City Finely Decorated and Illuminated—A Gala Day.

DENVER, Aug. 9.—Nearly fifty thousand knights turned out to-day in the great street pageant which forms the principal feature of the triennial gatherings of the Knights Templar, and the spectacle was one which will be remembered by the good people of Denver for many a day. The commanderies began to assemble as early as nine o'clock, but it was almost eleven before the streets were cleared and the immense body of men set in motion. Although the line of march extended over several miles, every inch of sidewalk on the route was crowded from curb to building line, every window was filled with eager spectators, and even the housetops were covered with people watching the sea of plumes that moved steadily forward like the current of a mighty river many feet beneath them. Those on the housetops and in the upper windows, in fact, obtained by far the best view of the procession, as much of its beauty consisted in the intricate symbols of the order which were exhibited in the formation of the ranks as they passed through the streets. It was only from an elevation that the machine-like accuracy of the movements could be appreciated as commandery after commandery broke the regularity of its ranks, for a moment seemed lost in confusion, and then as if by magic emerged in the form of Greek, a passion, or a Maltese cross, or perhaps a hollow square, a triangle, or some of the myriad mystic combinations formed from the figure three. At scores of places on the line stands had been erected, and thousands of people cheerfully paid their quarters, half dollars or even dollars for a foothold on these points of advantage.

Just before the order to march was given, Grand Master Gobin was escorted by St. John's commandery of Philadelphia, from the Palace Hotel to the reviewing stand at the corner of Sixteenth and Broadway, where, in the company of the Governor and chief officials of the State of Colorado, and the Mayor of Denver he reviewed the hosts of Sir Knights. Everything that money and forethought could provide for the comfort of the Knights was placed at their disposal, and the most fatiguing event of the conclave was accomplished without serious mishap of any kind. One feature of the parade which gave rise to much favorable comment was the ample supply of cold water which the local committee provided at over a hundred points along the line of march. Each water barrel was placed in charge of a score of small boys armed with cups, and during the halt the thirsty Knights kept the boys on the move, and often times let a stray nickel or dime drop in their hands to show their appreciation of the attention. At the conclusion of the parade, and after the commanderies had been dismissed, Grand Master Gobin was escorted to the Masonic Temple, and there convened the first session of the Grand Encampment.

The decorations of the city are in themselves a sight, and well worth a journey to behold. The official decorator has covered himself with glory, and the city with bunting. By day the buildings present a bewildering maze of drapery of every hue and texture, and woven into designs symbolic of the knightly order. By night the City Hall, Court House, Union Depot and other large buildings are wreathed in a halo of light, the Court House alone being hung with over 1500 incandescent lights, and several scores of arc lamps, the latter being hung at the corners of the dome, and over the principal entrances. A magnificent arch has been erected in front of the Union Depot, built on classic lines and in imitation of stone. A mailed knight is painted on the side facing the depot, and two modern knights on the reverse side. A life size statue of a mailed knight is a prominent feature of the structure and a profusion of electric lights produces an effect at night that is only comparable to an immense pyrotechnic display. An elaborate arch has also been erected in front of the Masonic Temple, and one on Eighteenth street, besides numerous less sumptuous affairs in different parts of the city. Search lights of 50,000 candle power each have been placed on several of the high buildings including the Union Depot and the Court House, each of them throwing a flood of light a distance of three miles. Thirty-two thousand incandescent colored lamps have been strung along the streets, and their light alone would make the city as bright as day.

EDWARD DE COBAIN.

The Expelled Belfast M. P., a Preacher in Brooklyn, N. Y.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—The Herald this morning says that Edward De Cobain preached at a revival meeting held in a shabby tent in a vacant lot in Brooklyn last evening. None of the little band of Methodists suspected the man's identity, nor thought for an instant that one of the foulest charges made against a man was hanging over his head, a charge which caused him to flee the United Kingdom over a year ago. He was a member of parliament for Belfast when the crime was attributed to him, and he fled to the continent, claiming he was a victim of a conspiracy. He was expelled from the British House of Commons upon his failure to return and face his accusers, and he is now a fugitive from justice. Nothing definite was heard of him, but it was given out that he was in Spain or France. He is, however, living in New York and dropped in at the revival meeting at Brooklyn. The Herald correspondent introduced himself at the close of the meeting and accompanied Mr. De Cobain home. Mr. DeCobain asserted his innocence of the charges, and says he is preparing papers showing that he was the victim of a plot on the part of the Irish police, whom he had denounced. He said that when he left England he went to France and came to America last May, since which time he has been in this city.

THE COAL MINES.

Rumor About the Union Mines Resuming—Sent Back to Vancouver.

NANAIMO, Aug. 9.—It is reported in Nanaimo that the Union Mines will be re-opened again this week. The steamer Isabel went up on Sunday for the purpose of conveying a large number of Japanese to the mines.

In conversation with a prominent member of the miners' union it was learned that the association were not responsible for the action of the Labor Council in refusing to accept the figures sent in by the Nanaimo band. The council is made up of all trades and consequently their action, so to speak, has nothing to do with the miners' association. It is expected that the band will have to be engaged for the occasion and if so there will be no cause for dissent.

The New V. C. Company have erected an enormous large fan on the spot the large fan stood prior to the explosion in No. 1 shaft, and which was totally destroyed by fire. The new fan has a diameter of 36 feet and a circumference of 108 feet. It is said to be the largest fan on the Pacific coast, and will be used for the purpose of ventilating No. 1 shaft, where there are millions of tons of coal awaiting a time when it may be required. Although the coal trade is somewhat slack at present, still the company are in a position to ship from 2500 to 3000 tons of coal per day, and the citizens of Nanaimo will be pleased to hear of the necessity of such large shipments.

At a meeting of the School Trustees yesterday, the building of a new school in the South Ward was awarded to J. A. Bittencourt, and the secretary was instructed to inform him to commence work immediately. The completion of the school will cost about $2500.

Four mysterious prospectors returned from a secret prospecting trip in the north on Sunday and according to the inuendoes thrown out they have got "the thing," even the famous Silver King isn't in it. Some of the rock was shown around the city, but it was in pocket pieces, and very little of it. The finders are quite enthusiastic over it and will leave again in a few days for the golden region. The claims have been registered at Westminster and are said to be in Jarves Inlet.

Last evening the steamer City of Nanaimo arrived from Vancouver with 35 passengers and a large quantity of freight. The health officer boarded the vessel and on examination found a man who had lately had smallpox, but some of the sores were still on him. There was also another man whom the officer looked upon as a suspect and accordingly refused to allow the vessel to remain alongside, so that the City of Nanaimo had to return to Vancouver with her passengers and freight.

Weird performances akin to the supernatural were inaugurated. The spirits of various dead persons, the names by which they were known when in the body being suggested by those present, were called upon, and duly communed with. Answers to questions propounded by members of the circle were given through the medeation of a medium and many such uncanny doings were seen in course of the service.

THE PROVINCIAL CZAR.

Premier Davie Undertakes to Bulldoze the Council into Paying Accounts.

A Rare Combination of Insolence and Tyranny—The Latest Ukase Issued.

The Correspondence on the Subject Between the Mayor and the Premier.

The citizens of Victoria will no doubt read with much interest the following correspondence between the Premier and the Mayor, and the latest "health rules" issued from the factory across James Bay.

A WORD FROM THE AUTOCRAT.

VICTORIA, B.C., August 6th, 1892.

Robert Beaven, Esq., Mayor. Victoria.

DEAR SIR:—I beg to enclose list of claims of workmen employed in smallpox matters. The men complain that they can get no satisfaction whatever from the city, and in most instances the want of money is causing severe distress.

It is of the highest importance that workmen employed as these men have been should be promptly paid, and I have therefore told the men to again apply to you for payment early on Monday morning, and, failing satisfaction at that time, to present their claims at the Treasury.

As ——, —— and —— were urgently in need of money, I advanced them $5 each, which amount you will please deduct, if you settle with these men.

Yours truly,
(Sgd.) THEODORE DAVIE,
Attorney-General.

THE MAYOR'S REPLY.

VICTORIA, B.C., 8th August, 1892.

The Hon. Theodore Davie, Premier, &c.:

SIR,—Your letter of Saturday's date is before me. I have no doubt inconvenience will arise in consequence of the interference with municipal affairs of irresponsible persons. It will be a fortunate circumstance if nothing worse should result. The board of health and finance committee are quite competent to attend to their duties. The corporation will provide in due course for officers and persons employed by them.

Persons unauthorised by the proper city authorities have been employing men and purchasing supplies on account of the corporation. A proper inquiry is necessary.

Some of the men you name will be paid at the earliest moment the statute permits. others have been employed without city authority, some classified as guards are in excess of the number authorised, and other irregularities exist.

I cannot deprecate too strongly the employment of men upon duties of this character, leading them to suppose that they would be paid by the corporation without first ascertaining that they could be paid.

Dr. Milne, I am informed, has not employed any person on behalf of the corporation to attend to smallpox matters since the 20th July.

It is the practice of the corporation to pay every person they employ; more especially do they desire to promptly pay men who have little else but their labor to depend upon. No doubt these men have all been employed by some one and should be paid, but we have a duty also to the taxpayers who intrust their funds to us. You also owe a duty to the Provincial taxpayers.

We endeavor to carry on the business of the city in the manner indicated by the statute.

It is a somewhat remarkable coincidence that you, who were prominent last year in the appointment of commissioners at a cost to the city of over $4600 to inquire into alleged infractions of law by our predecessors in office, should this year apparently desire to bring about a state of affairs which in my opinion would be a disregard of the law upon our part.

Experience has convinced me of the correctness of my estimate as to the tendency of some of the provisions you were instrumental, unfortunately, in inducing the members of the Assembly to incorporate into the Municipal Act last session. Yours truly,

ROBERT BEAVEN,
Mayor.

THE LATEST UKASE.

Yesterday an order-in-council was issued by the Attorney-General, styled the "Declaratory and Amending Health Rules," the purport of which is to "declare the true constitution and intent" of the two previous sets of health regulations. Following is the essential part of the new "ukase:"

And whereas expense has been and will be incurred by virtue of the appointment of a Municipal Health Officer for the City of Victoria under the said Regulations, which expense should be met and defrayed by the Corporation of the said city.

And whereas it was and will be necessary to provide proper hospital accommodation for persons found within the city of Victoria afflicted with smallpox, including the services of physicians, nurses, attendants and servants, and including food, bedding, clothing, medicines and other necessaries, as well as to provide proper places and tents for the reception and isolation of persons exposed to contagion, and generally to employ physicians, officers, men and servants, and to provide food, clothing, bedding, medicines and other necessaries to secure the due enforcement and carrying out of the said Rules and Regulations, as well as the provisions of the Consolidated Health By-law, 1886, of the said Corporation, relating to contagious and infectious diseases;

And whereas the said Corporation ought to meet and defray all the expenses hereinbefore mentioned;

And whereas the municipal authorities of the said city are apparently unable or unwilling to make provision for and defray the said expenses, and it is expedient for the Province to make such provision for the time being;

Therefore, His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor has, by and with the advice of his Executive Council, been pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, as follows:—

1. It shall and may be lawful for the Minister of Finance of the province of British Columbia from time to time to advance in the first instance, out of the consolidated revenue of the province, the sums requisite to meet and defray all salaries, wages, costs of expenses whatsoever incurred, or to be incurred, in connection with the treatment and suppression of smallpox within the said city of Victoria, under the said rules and regulations, and under the Consolidated Health By-law, 1886, upon warrants from time to time duly certified by the provincial health officer, or by the municipal health officer for the said city, appointed under the said regulations and approved by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor.

2. The said sums shall be a debt due from the said city of Victoria to Her Majesty, and shall form a charge until fully paid and satisfied upon all the revenues of the said city from whatever source arising.

3. On the third Monday in each month, commencing with the month of August, 1892, or on such other days as shall from time to time be designated by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, a statement showing the amount so paid out of the consolidated revenue, up to and inclusive of the date of such statement, shall be made up and signed in duplicate by the the Provincial Auditor, and shall be countersigned by the Minister of Finance; one of such statements shall be mailed at Victoria in a prepaid registered letter addressed to the Mayor of the said City.

4. If, within fourteen days from the day of the mailing of such letter, the said city shall not pay into the Provincial Treasury at Victoria the full amount shewn by such statement to have been paid, the other of such statements shall be delivered to the Sheriff for the County of Victoria.

5. The said Sheriff shall then proceed to levy execution against the said City for the said amount, in the same manner as if the statement had been a writ of fieri facias upon a judment of the Supreme Court obtained against the said City, and in the event of his being unable to make the said amount, he shall have full power and authority, in his own name, to sue for, receive and recover any moneys due to the said City, including taxes on real property and license fees, and payment to the Sheriff thereof shall be a good answer in respect to any such moneys, taxes or license fees, to any action or process brought or taken for the recovery thereof by or on behalf of the said City against the persons paying the same; and such Sheriff shall be, for the purposes of these Rules, and for the collection of moneys due thereunder, a Receiver of all the revenues of the said City, from whatever source arising, and he shall also have the powers and authority conferred by sections 325 to 330, both inclusive, of the "Municipal Act, 1892;" and the Sheriff shall hold the moneys to be recovered or received by him upon trust, in the first place, to pay or retain the costs of levying, recovering and collecting the same; next in payment into the Provincial Treasury of the amount so paid out of the consolidated revenue, and the remainder (if any) shall be paid to the said City.

6. Where there is any ambiguity or uncertainty in any of the said Rules or Regulations as to any offence defined, or purporting to be defined, or as to any penalty or punishment imposed, or purported to be imposed, it shall be and be deemed to have been lawful for the Court making a conviction to convict and adjudicate under section 39 of the said Rules.

7. No conviction, order, or other proceeding, matter, or thing named, done, or transacted in or relating to the execution of the said Rules and Regulations, or of these Rules, shall be vacated, quashed, or set aside for want of form, or be removed or removable by certiorari or other writ or process whatsoever into the Supreme Court, and no appeal shall lie in any case from any conviction of any Court by any process whatsoever unless the consent in writing of the Attorney-General thereto shall have been first had and obtained.

8. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary appearing in the said Rules and Regulations the maximum term of imprisonment for any infraction of, or neglect of, or disobedience to, the said Rules and Regulations that shall be awarded by any court shall be the term of three months and no more.

9. Notwithstanding anything in the said Rules and Regulations appearing to the contrary, and subject to the next preceding rule, all penalties, whether by way of fine, imprisonment, or otherwise named therein, shall be deemed to be the maximum penalties in respect of the offences for which they are respectively imposed, and it shall be lawful for the court making any conviction under the said Rules and Regulations, having regard to the circumstances of the offence, to award any less penalty than the maximum.

The Empire's Montreal correspondent says he learns that A. M. Featherstone, of that city, Dominion Councillor of the Royal Templars of Temperance, will at once announce a meeting of the council of the order which meets in Hamilton to-morrow, and squarely advocate a movement to secure a Provincial plebiscite vote on the question of prohibiting the importation, sale and manufacture of intoxicating liquors in Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island and the Western Provinces.

A fatal accident took place on Saturday night about two miles from Quebec on the line of the Quebec & Lake St. John Railway. A through train having become separated the two portions afterwards came into collision. Conductor North was badly crushed and died shortly after being taken to the hospital. Others injured are Henry Smith, clerk in office of C. A. Scott, of the Lower Laurentian Railway; an old man, Bruneau, seriously cut and bruised, and John Shaw, of Chateauvert, and Grogan, of Quebec, slightly injured.

On Saturday, about noon, Sir Richard Cartwright left Kingston in a skiff to row to his country house on the St. Lawrence, a few miles down. When rounding Point Frederick he was caught in a terrific squall, which was accompanied by hail and torrents of rain. The boat was capsized and Sir Richard thrown out. The accident was witnessed by the men of A Battery, at the barracks, and Major Drury and Capt. Gaudet hurried to the rescue. Sir Richard clung to the overturned boat tenaciously and was in the water nearly half an hour with the storm beating fiercely. He was completely exhausted when rescued.

Hon. John Carling, Minister of Agriculture, received from Prof. Saunders the following telegram, which may be taken as an official report of crops in Manitoba and the Northwest: "Grain has matured rapidly during the past three weeks. In many places west of Indian Head the yield will be small on account of the drought. About Indian Head and east thereof, also in Manitoba, the yield will be good on all well prepared land. We are having fine ripening weather. Straw will be short. The heads are average in size and well filled grain will be fit to cut in a week or more. This is earlier than last year. Present outlook very promising. Crops on Experimental Farms at Indian Head and Brandon are excellent and well advanced."

Sir Daniel Wilson, president of the Toronto University, died on Saturday evening at 5:30. He had been ill for several weeks, and though growing weaker, it was expected that his wonderful vitality would suffice to prolong life for a few months. On Saturday last he suffered from a severe attack of congestion of the lungs. On recovering from his late illness he enjoyed fairly good health for some weeks, but the amount of attention he had of late been obliged to give to university affairs proved too severe a strain on his constitution, already very much weakened by his recent illness and old age. About six weeks ago he was again obliged to seek his bed. Slowly he grew weaker and weaker, and despite careful nursing and constant medical attention, he expired on Saturday evening. Death was due solely to senile decay. The Globe, commenting on the appointment of a successor to Sir Daniel Wilson, says: The position, in anticipation of a vacancy, was, we understand, offered to Hon. Edward Blake prior to that gentleman's departure for Ireland; but Mr. Blake, in view of his entry upon Imperial politics, could not promise to accept it. There is one name that will occur to many in connection with this high post. It is that of Dr. Grant, principal of Queen's University.

THE NEW PARLIAMENT.

Debate on the Non-Confidence Motion in the House of Commons.

LONDON, Aug. 8.—When the House of Commons began its session after returning from the House of Lords where they listened to the Queen's speech, Mr. Gladstone was sworn amidst Liberal and Irish Nationalist cheers.

Lord Salisbury, in the House of Lords, said there was no precedent for the present situation since there was no measure before the House. He did not intend at present to speak to the past policy of the Government and wondered at the reticence of the Opposition.

The Duke of Devonshire said that he had expected to hear the reason of the Opposition for turning out the Government, and he would ask the Opposition to state whether should Parliament not meet for six months, steps would be taken to scuttle out of Egypt.

Baron Herschell, Liberal, replied with a protest against the suggestion that the foreign office was about to fall into weaker hands.

The motion for a reply to the address was agreed to, and the House adjourned.

Mr. Burt's speech in the Commons, in seconding a motion of "no confidence," was followed by an attack on the Opposition by Mr. Goschen, Chancellor of the Exchequer, who expressed the hope that the Opposition would realize that the time had come for setting forth their mysterious policy toward Ireland. He maintained that the voters had been hoodwinked by the Gladstonians with minor issues adapted to local conditions, and that therefore no fair run of popular opinion on Home Rule had been obtained. The majority of the Opposition was obtained on the strength of a vague formula of Home Rule. Mr. Goschen closed with the prophetic remark that the recent victory of the Opposition might not mean their final triumph.

Mr. Justin McCarthy, the anti-Parnellite leader, answering Mr. Goschen from the Irish benches, reviewed Mr. Goschen's attack on the Opposition, and compared the Government to a captured footpad asking that he might fire the last shot with his blunderbuss. The whole Unionist policy, he said, might be summed up in the one word, "coercion." If the Home Rule Bill, when explained, should prove unsatisfactory, the Irish members would be against it. If the House of Lords should reject the Home Rule Bill, the Liberals ought still to consider themselves pledged to exert all their energies until such a bill should be passed.

George Wyndham, Conservative, for Dover, said all parties were agreed in suspecting Mr. Gladstone and his mysterious policy.

Jesse Collings, Liberal, for the Bordesley division of Birmingham, said that when the details of Mr. Gladstone's Home Rule scheme should become known, Unionism would become stronger than ever, especially in Scotland.

John Redmond, Parnellite, for Waterford City, spoke of the interest of every Nationalist in facilitating the eviction of the present Government, and expressed regret that the House must be kept in ignorance of the Home Rule bill till next February. The Irish Parliament to be granted by the bill must not be subject to revision or repeal. He demanded the release of Irishmen imprisoned at the time of the dynamite panic, and the reinstatement of evicted tenants. Were these demands not granted by the bill he would not support it.

Vicount Wolmer, Liberal Unionist, for Edinburgh, closed the debate and the House adjourned.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE.

The Colonist pays a well-deserved compliment to Mr. Joshua Davies as President of the Jubilee Hospital Board. From our knowledge of the business methods of Mr. Davies, Mr. Chudley and others concerned, we can fully believe that the business of the hospital is systematically conducted, and that every dollar of expenditure will be accounted for. The local item in the TIMES, which gave our contemporary a text, was written with special reference to the Ross Bay suspect station, where everything is muddled and unsatisfactory; but it was made so general that the authorities of the hospital appeared to be included in the condemnation. We have not the slightest doubt that the accounts of the hospital in connection with the smallpox patients, and which the city has undertaken to pay, have been kept in such shape that they will be easily understood by the city auditor when he is asked to examine them. And we have just as little doubt that the management of the Ross Bay Suspect House, with which the Hospital Board has had nothing to do, will be shown to have been utterly disgraceful. The statement that everything "was in a muddle" was true in respect of this institution, which the Davie brothers have run as a sort of political machine. The mayor and aldermen have been ignored, a large indebtedness has been incurred on the credit of the city by men unauthorized by the corporation and the latter is called upon to foot the bills. There is a difficulty in distinguishing between the management of the two places, for the influence of the doctor with the cheerful smile seems to dominate both institutions. But the facts are, we believe, that Dr. Davie and Dr. Hasell and a few other understrappers are responsible for the blundering and the expense that have characterized the "suspect home." At all events, neither the hospital board nor the city council can be held accountable for the "muddle" at Ross Bay.

MORE AMATEUR CZARISM.

Premier Davie was evidently born out of his proper time or out of his proper place. Five hundred years ago he might have endeavored to play the tyrant in almost any country without causing much surprise. In these modern days the role of dictator is left to political adventurers in the Central and South American republics. We respectfully suggest that if the Premier entertains so fierce a hatred for constitutional forms and usages as his recent conduct indicates, he might better transplate himself to Bolivia, or Honduras, or some other region where the people are somewhat acquainted with the ways of would-be autocrats. In this country, where the people are supposed to enjoy the blessings of civil liberty and self-government, it cannot be supposed that his wretched efforts to constitute himself a dictator will commend themselves to the public. His endeavor to bulldoze the municipal government in connection with the "suspect home" accounts is worthy of Balmaceda or the deposed president of Venezuela, but it could hardly have been expected from the head of a government in this Canada of ours. If British Columbians submit tamely to tyrannical edicts issued by Premier Davie or any other premier, they will prove themselves unworthy of the name of freemen.

To put the matter briefly, the situation is just this: The city of Victoria has, under provincial law, the right of municipal self-government. Its affairs are entrusted by the taxpayers to the hands of the Mayor and council, who are bound to protect the taxpayers' interests. One of the duties imposed on them by the statute is to see that no money is illegally paid out of the civic treasury. If they neglected this duty they would not only forfeit the confidence of the citizens, and rightly so, but they would render themselves liable to the penalties prescribed by the statute. To them the Attorney-General issues his fiat that they must pay money illegally on orders issued by his creatures, and when they refuse he issues a fresh ukase proclaiming that the city's property will be seized in satisfaction of these illegal and irregular accounts. Further, he proclaims that the representatives of the citizens shall have no appeal to the courts unless he consents thereto. Could the Czar go further than this? Can any person imagine a more complete subversion of municipal rights, a more infamous attack on the liberty of the subject? We must go back to the days of Charles I. and the ship money in order to find a parallel. The man must be drunk with his own insolence and with his lust for power, not yet satisfied with his ascension to the leadership of the Government.

It can hardly be necessary at this late day to point out the dangers accompanying this attack by the new Family Compact on the law and the constitution. If the Premier can thus remove at will the functions of the Victoria city government, and fleece it for the benefit of some of his hangers-on, there is no municipality in the province safe from his inroads. What a nice time we shall have if this particular phase of Davieism is to go unquestioned! The municipal system, as established by law, will be reduced to a farce and the people might as well at once put their necks under the feet of the dictator. We cannot believe that the people of Victoria, or of British Columbia generally, will show themselves such abject slaves. Of one thing at least we are sure—that they will earn the contempt of all other Canadians should they do so.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Colonist deems it "irresistibly funny" that Dr. Davie should be censured for his display of inconsistency. Just so. Inconsistency is one of the most prominent features of our neighbor's character, and it is quite natural that there should appear to it something "irresistibly funny" in the fault being condemned.

Judging from Mr. D. M. Gordon's letter, which appears in another column, Napoleon Fitzstubbs is copying the Premier's example very closely, since he arrogates to himself the prerogative of pardon, which appertains only to the Queen or to her viceroy. It is a poor country that cannot afford small as well as big autocrats. In law, of course, Mr. Fitzstubbs can find no warrant for his action, but under the present provincial regime the law does not seem to count for much.

The Vancouver World disputes the correctness of Health Inspector Huntly's report in regard to the number of Vancouver cases of smallpox that can properly be traced to Victoria. Mr. Huntly mentioned two, but the paper would double the number. Even this would be less than the number with which the World has previously credited Victoria. Of course the World knows more about the matter than Inspector Huntly, and where its knowledge is deficient it fills the gap from the resources of a very large imagination.

Speaking of quarantine matters the Montreal Star says:—"The Government has consented to take immediate action for the improvement of Grosse Isle Quarantine. At a meeting of the Council, held on Saturday afternoon, it was resolved to invite tenders for the construction of the deep water pier at Grosse Isle, which the Star has been persistently demanding for the last fortnight, and the building of which has been officially recommended and urged for some years. Now that the ministers are convinced of the wisdom of taking action in this matter they have very sensibly resolved to make their precautions against cholera as complete as possible. They contemplate spending over a hundred thousand dollars on the pier at Grosse Island, besides building a new pier at Albert Head, B. C. The equipment of all the Canadian quarantine stations with the most modern appliances for disinfection was discussed, but nothing definite decided upon. This, however, must follow as a matter of course. The only object in building the deep water pier is to make it possible to disinfect ships by modern methods. If the Government intended to retain the old method of pretence at disinfection by fumigating with sulphur the pier would only be useful as a promenade for the passengers while detained."

LIQUOR SMUGGLING AT ROSS BAY SUSPECT STATION.

TO THE EDITOR:—As the above was the supposed cause of my dismissal as bath-attendant from Ross Bay suspect station, where I had been placed by Dr. Wade, I should be pleased if you would allow me to place a few facts before the public. On the 21st of July, while waiting in the sanitary office for my time check, Dr. Wade came in looking for a man to act as bath attendant at Ross Bay. I offered my services, which were immediately accepted, and upon receiving such instructions as were necessary, started directly for the suspect station, where I found Mr. Chas. Bone, chief special constable, in charge. At this time liquor was brought in both by guards and suspects ad libitum. Two days after this strict orders were received to allow no liquor under any circumstances to enter the grounds. Notwithstanding these orders suspects continued receiving small quantities of spirits from time to time, until Dr. Hasell's arrival (July 25th) as resident medical officer at the station. Since Dr. Hasell's arrival there were to my knowledge but four bottles passed over, two of brandy and two of whiskey, one of the latter belonging to myself and through which I was discharged. This bottle I had ordered and paid for, as I had a perfect right to do, having had Dr. Wade's permission to keep a small amount of liquor in the bathroom. On receiving this bottle (July 27th) I immediately took it to Dr. Hasell's tent, knowing that if I received it without his knowledge I should be liable to censure. He allowed me to take the bottle away (this was about 3 o'clock in the afternoon). At 10:30 that evening Dr. Hasell sent for me, asking me to produce the bottle of whiskey and upon my telling him I had used it he ordered my arrest, which continued until 8 o'clock the next evening, when I was dismissed and told to leave the grounds immediately after receiving the customary bath. Not having time to send for clothing and not being allowed to take away what I had on (even razor, knives, walking cane were taken away from me) I wished to stay till next morning, but this Dr. Hasell would not hear of, and without consulting me in any way, telephoned for clothing, which after having my bath I had to don, and at half-past ten that night I was turned out of Ross Bay suspect station with ill-fitting clothes and a hat that would be too small for a ten year old boy. Now Dr. Hasell sends in my time as follows: 5½ days, with price of clothing to be deducted. In the first place the time is wrong, for I started at 3 o'clock p.m. on the 21st, and was dismissed at 8 p.m. on the 28th, making 7½ days. In the second place he wants to charge me $10 for clothing he forced me to have after keeping that which belonged to me. ROBT. W. H. STAITE, 149 Cook street.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.

THOSE who live in glass houses should not throw stones. Victoria never claimed absolute infallibility in her smallpox arrangements at the commencement of the outbreak, nor could she claim immunity from error under the "Davie" regime. Yet Victoria can assert that every reasonable and just method for dealing with the disease has been loyally supported by every citizen. Feeling this the Victorians were naturally incensed at the scurvy treatment dealt out to them by the Vancouverites. Would the readers of the TIMES be surprised to know that a man suffering from smallpox at Vancouver was allowed to walk through the open streets in broad daylight? It is true that a policeman accompanied him and persons were supposed to be warned of his approach, similar, I suppose, to the lepers under the old Jewish law, who were obliged to cry Unclean, Unclean. A citizen of Victoria who witnessed the scene last week is my authority for the statement.

The Union Mines at Comox must be a pleasant place to live in—that is, to those who are fond of the more perilous kinds of sport. Ladies and children had better remain nearer home, for bears are not unknown in that locality. A friend of mine, employed by Messrs. Dunsmuir, was strolling through the woods, calmly meditating, in the cool of the evening, when he heard an unmistakable growl. Glancing quickly round, he observed a bear sitting up on its hind legs, preparing for battle. For fully five minutes—it seemed an hour—the two enemies faced each other, and then the human beat a retreat, slowly at first, increasing to a trot afterwards. My friend declares that never more will he "take his walks abroad" without his trusty rifle.

Said an enthusiastic admirer of the TIMES to me yesterday:—"The TIMES is the best paper—best conducted and more independent certainly than any paper this side of the Rockies—and I might go further than that." Knowing the earnest desire of both proprietors and editors to maintain the high reputation of the paper, I cordially reciprocated the sentiment, and said in true Oriental style, "May your shadow never grow less."

The tax-collector must have a comparatively easy time in Holy Russia. If the unfortunate peasant should be unable or unwilling to pay his taxes, he is soundly flogged by the tax-collector, the law giving him the power so to do. The instrument used is called a flogging machine, and is very popular amongst government officials who do a little collecting. A friend of mine, well, he is the collector of the TIMES, glanced over my shoulder as I wrote this item, and devoutly breathed a prayer for the loan of the machine for a few days. Most gracious Czar, grant thou his request.

"To be forewarned is to be forearmed." On Chatham street near the sand-pits there is a tree apparently very likely to fall across the road. Possibly it is growing upon private property, although a certain proportion of the roots is upon the road; the grading of the road some few months ago caused the insecure position. An hour's work by the corporation may possibly save a human life. QUIZ.

The Yates Building.

The contract for the Yates building on Wharf street has been let to Mr. J. W. Carter, who this morning commenced to clear the site for the new block. The building is to be two storeys high, 66 by 90 feet and will cost about $14,000.

A Handsome Front.

New Wheat Marketed.

This morning Walter E. Hill, of Lake District, delivered to Brackman & Ker, the first load of this years' growth of grain, in the shape of some fall wheat of excellent quality. Will go to Westminster.

The bodies of the Chinaman who was murdered at Rivers Inlet, and his companion who was frightened to death, were brought to the city last evening and will be sent over to New Westminster to-morrow morning. Sing Kee the murderer and the three men charged with burglary will also be taken over.

Still Doing Good Business.

The city's official vaccinators are still having their time during the "free" hours, well occupied attending to those who have not yet acquired any lymph. In some cases after ten applications the virus failed to effect an entrance to the system, the only comforting thought left for persons of such stubborn physique being that if their system refused to take the lymph it will be pretty sure to bid defiance to the smallpox. The lymph used is of the purest and freshest, and the doctors request that everybody who has not been vaccinated make haste to attend.

Could Not Believe It.

One of the curve greasers and track tenders employed by the tramway company was encountered by several of the firemen on Sunday morning about 5 o'clock diligently greasing a curve on Douglas street. They asked him what he meant by throwing away his time like that, and if he had not heard that the power house was destroyed. He refused to believe the firemen and went on greasing the curve, saying that the cars would be along in a few minutes and he wanted to get through in plenty of time. He finished that curve and marched off to deal with the next.

A Foundationless Rumor.

It was rumored this morning that another case of smallpox had been discovered in Chinatown. On tracing the report to its source it was found to be baseless. A tyhee Chinaman spoken to by a TIMES reporter to-day said he could "assert without fear of successful contradiction," that not the slightest sign of smallpox could be discovered in Chinatown. The denizens of the place are as fully alive to the danger, said the tyhee, as are the white inhabitants of the city. There are sick Chinamen all the time, of course, but there has not been a case of smallpox among them this year.

A Chinaman Accused of Stealing.

There was a lively time on Yates street this morning for a short time. John Lomax and a Chinaman were having a wrestling match, while the former was accusing the latter of stealing a quantity of money from him. It seems that the Chinaman was sawing wood for Mr. Lomax, and the latter says this morning he took out his cash box to pay the Celestial; but remembering he had some change in another room, left the cash box and went away to get the change. His story continues, that when he came back both Chinaman and the box were gone. A chase followed, and a constable came to the rescue. The matter will be settled in the police court.

The board of managers of the Protestant Orphans' Home will meet tomorrow for the purpose of receiving the report of the special committee appointed to select a site for the new home. The committee will recommend a site, but where or what it is is as yet a secret.

Bush Fires.

Several big bush fires have been raging along the American shore during the last few days. The sky over the Olympics was red last night and big blazes could be seen all along the coast. One seemed to be uncomfortably near to Port Angeles. The districts around Victoria have been pretty well free from fires so far.

New Marine Store.

Mr. Frank Sylvester is having Gowen's old machine shop altered and repaired with the intention of occupying it as a marine and general store at an early date. A new rustic front is being put in and a large number of shelves and counters. Mr. Sylvester expects to be ready for business about Sept. 1.

Expected at Esquimalt.

The warships Warspite and Nymphe are expected at Esquimalt to-morrow or Thursday after a prolonged cruise among the islands. The smallpox panic having subsided, it is understood general leave will be granted the crews. H.M.S. Nymphe has been "off and on" about Esquimalt up to seven or eight days ago, but has been out to sea since that time.

Preparing for the Match.

The officers of the Victoria Lacrosse club are making active preparations for the match on Saturday next with the Vancouvers. Twelve of the Transfer Company's backs and ten busses will carry persons to the grounds at 25 cents a head. They will run every 15 minutes from the Fountain on Douglas street, and from the corner of St. Charles street and Cadboro Bay road (opposite D. W. Higgins' residence), to the grounds. A band will provide music during the match.

ROSS BAY SUSPECTS.

Ald. Lovell Obtains a Report From Dr Hasell, Resident Physician.

TO THE EDITOR:—Yesterday afternoon by post, one week after a statement had been asked for, I received a list of names from Dr. Hasell, as follows:

"August 6, 1892.

"List of inmates of Ross Bay suspect station since July 20th, 1892."

Then follows a list of the names of 113 souls below which is:

"Note—Those names erased with a red line have been discharged, those with violet have been sent to Jubilee Hospital quarantine station. Total number of inmates, August 6th, 1892, 43. Number of guards 10, kitchen 3, bath-room 2, scavengers 2, laundry 2, nurse 1, office 1. Number of suspects 22. (Signed) EDWARD HASELL, Resident Medical Superintendent."

The latter part of the report being analyzed shows that the 22 suspects comprise 11 men and boys, 9 women and girls, and 2 babies, kept in order by 10 guards and 11 servants.

As there appears to be a paid clerk in the office I thought that the ratepayers, who are asked to pay all expenses, should be provided with a more complete statement after a week's incubation. But I suppose we must be satisfied with what we can get.

J. B. LOVELL.

THE SUSPECTS.

Government Officials at Ross Bay Station—an Awful Muddle.

The latest report from the Ross Bay suspect station places the number of persons in confinement as follows: Nine women and girls, two babies, eleven men and boys. To watch this formidable community there are ten able-bodied provincial policemen under Superintendent Hussey, and eleven other servants, not including the bookkeeper nor even the medical resident superintendent.

The municipal authorities have always claimed that the expense at the suspect station was outrageous. They say that if there were ten babies instead of two they could understand the necessity of the eleven muscular policemen, because then they would have a baby apiece and could act as nurses. The twenty servants for twenty-two people is a small part of the expense, so a reporter was told this morning.

Supplies and things of that nature have been ordered by the so-called health officer, Dr. Wade, and Dr. Hasell has also had a hand in it. The men Dr. Wade employed ordered goods when they felt like it, and all Dr. Davie's understrappers apparently have had carte blanche in all matters. It is said that among the necessaries which were ordered were two cases of champagne and boxes of cigars, which looks suspicious if true.

It is still maintained that the statement published in the TIMES a few days ago, that everything in connection with the smallpox liabilities of the suspect home are in a "hopeless muddle," was true, and as a consequence the Board of Health, for the protection of the taxpayers, as well as for their own personal protection, have so far not recognized any bills that were not authorized. An alderman said at the last meeting, "no royal commission will sit on me if I know it."

All information from the suspect station, it is said, is obtained with the greatest difficulty, and a great deal asked for has never been furnished to the Board of Health.

Most complexion powders have a vulgar glare, but Pozzoni's is a true beautifier, whose effects are lasting.

A QUIET WEDDING.

Mr. P. Menut and Miss Martha Campbell Married Early This Morning.

There was a very quiet wedding in the R. C. pro-cathedral early this morning when Mr. Henri E. Menut, of Cherbourg, France, was married to Martha J. the youngest daughter of the late Frank Campbell of this city. The bride is one of the best known of Victoria's daughters and has a large circle of friends. The groom has resided in Victoria for a little over a year, during which time he has made many friends who will wish him and his bride all joys possible.

The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. Father Nicolaye, the bride being given away by her brother, Mr. F. H. Campbell, and supported by Misses M. Stewart and Rita C. McDonald. The groom was supported by Mr. P. Menut.

The bride wore a very handsome costume of ivory colored silk, the bridemaids wearing colored satin and nuns veiling. The couple will leave in a few weeks for their future home in France.

AN IMPUDENT ROBBERY

Committed in the Prince of Wales Saloon by J. McGinley and E. Connor.

James McGinley and Edward Connor were up before Magistrate Macrae this morning charged with having stolen from the person of Edward A. Duffy, the sum of $6. Constable Smith testified that about three o'clock this morning on hearing some hard words he looked into the Prince of Wales saloon and saw Ed. A. Duffy treat the prisoners. Duffy was drunk and the actions of the prisoners made him suspicious. Soon he saw McGinley throw Duffy on the floor, when Connor presumably went to help in the melee, but both McGinley and Connor put their hands in the drunken man's pockets and took out silver and bills. He promptly arrested them when McGinley threw away two $1 bills, and Connor placed $4.50 in silver on the floor. Geo. Hill gave testimony in support of the officer; but Duffy remembered nothing of the occurrence. The court adjuged both defendants guilty and sentenced them to three months' imprisonment each.

Two drunks were allowed to go with a warning, and charges against Alex. Watson, for assaulting Mrs. Mary Murphy, and Alex. Campbell for infraction of the thistle by-law, were also dismissed.

Charles Beatty, charged with bringing stolen goods (in the shape of a $10 watch) into Canada, was, at the request of the chief of police, remanded for a week, to allow an opportunity to secure evidence from across the line.

F. G. Richards, jr., paid $5 for allowing thistles to flower on his property.

VISITING THE INDIANS.

Superintendent Vowell Spends Three Weeks Among the Northern Agencies.

A. W. Vowell, Superintendent of Indian Affairs, who on Sunday returned from a three weeks trip in visiting the Indian agencies of Metlakahtla, Queen Charlotte Island, Skeena River, Port Essington and Alert Bay, reports everything progressing quietly among the Indians. In point of weather the trip was a most disagreeable one, as wind and rain prevailed during the whole three weeks with very slight exception.

To visit Queen Charlotte Island, Mr. Vowell had to charter a steamer, engaging the Chieftain, owned by Mr. Cunningham. The lack of regular means of communication is one drawback against which the Indians complain, but of course there is no immediate remedy. The fisheries along the coast, where a large number of the natives are employed, are bringing them in closer touch with the rest of the country, and will tend to bring about better communication in the future.

At Massett there are fully 400 Indians who engage principally in fishing, hunting fur seal and sea otter. So many people, living as they do, naturally had some differences for settlement, which Mr. Vowell, with the assistance of the agent, attended to before leaving.

The dog fish oil factory at Clew employs a large number of Indians, as does also the oil works at Skidegate, where there are now 41 comfortable houses belonging to the Indians which are of modern build and are kept neat and clean. The Indians also have a comfortable church, and are generally orderly and well to do.

At Alert Bay Mr. Vowell inspected the new Indian school in course of construction. The work is progressing favorably and the Indians are looking forward with keen interest to the opening of that institution. The addition to the school at Metlakahtla is also being pushed forward vigorously. Her Majesty's ships Warspite and Nymphe were at Alert Bay when Mr. Vowell was coming down, and the officers were reported to be enjoying excellent sport fishing in the Nimkish river.

The fish refrigerator at Port Essington is a profound mystery to the Indians. They cannot understand how the building is kept cold, when sparks, smoke and steam are almost always issuing from the place. This refrigerator is used principally in putting up white salmon, which are shipped in ice-filled cases to Italy, where there is a great demand for the fish thus preserved. These fish hitherto had been cast away away as useless, whereas they now realize a fair price, and thus afford a new channel through which whites and Indians alike may profit in the future.

Fishing in the Skeena has been good, and the canneries will do well this season.

Mr. Vowell brought down with him a number of choice Indian curios. Some of them are rare antiquities, while others are modern carvings in imitation of articles used by the whites. A pair of crutches, with crouching animals for top pieces, and imitations of other animals for hand rests, are particularly neat. A number of finely carved great horn spoons, wood and bone fishing tackle, and ancient lip ornaments are also worthy of mention. Mr. Vowell remarks that there is great difficulty in obtaining these articles at present, the tourists who have traversed the country during the past few years having purchased them in great numbers. The Indians in consequence set great value on what they still retain, and demand high prices for them.

BRUTAL WIFE-BEATING.

A Man Who Habitually Maltreats His Crippled Wife.

Last evening about 7 o'clock the neighborhood around the intersection of Quebec and Oswego streets was startled by shrill screams for help. Several gentlemen who live near by and others passing on the street rushed to the spot whence the calls for assistance issued, a small cottage, corner of Oswego. A man named Cappock lives there with his wife and a family of several young children. Mrs. Cappock is paralyzed on the right side, and has not the use of her right arm and hand, the muscles of which are contracted, causing the arm to be held in a very constrained position. Cappock is a stoutly-built, burly looking fellow with a surly demeanor. When the party of men, among them a TIMES reporter, were running along the side of the house to reach the back of the premises, the sound of heavy blows and what seemed to be a severe struggle going on inside the building could be distinctly heard. The leader of the party shouted to the husband to stop his brutal work, which he quickly did, and as soon as she was released the wretched woman rushed from the house, apparently in deadly fear of her life. "Oh," she cried, "he's trying to kill me. Oh, my head; he struck me here," said the poor thing, laying her hand on the crown of her head. "I'm bruised all over with his blows." And the tears streamed from her eyes. The children were also screaming in mortal terror and crying as if their little hearts would break. One of the neighbors who arrived said that the man was continually beating his wife, and the wretched woman had not the life of a dog with him. The author of all the trouble stood on the step leading into an inner room across the kitchen, saying never a word, but looking surly and half-afraid of the angry crowd at the door. One stalwart young athlete had to be restrained by force or he would have thrashed the brute within an inch of his life. There was a whispered proposal to run the wife-beater into the yard and make his seating capacity warmly acquainted with a powerfully-wielded fence slat, but out of deference to the weeping woman and her children the fellow was left unmolested. A kind neighbor took the cripple to his own home for shelter and the children will be cared for as well. A workman who occupies the front portion of the cottage returned just after the row was all over. He said that if he had caught Cappock at his brutal game he would have given him a liberal dose of his own medicine. The workman looked as if quite able to do it, too.

To His Mother.

In a recent book on "Woman Through a Man's Eyeglass," the author pays this beautiful tribute to his mother, to whom he dedicates the volume: "When one has reached middle life and the wheels of existence need oiling with the encouragement of affection; when one is wounded and weary, he seeks again the steady starlight of a mother's love. . . . For a man who is growing old, with neither wife nor child to bring him greetings on his birthday, I can conceive nothing more awful than to have no mother who shall say, 'Bless you, my son:' while in so doing she happily remembers, in a gentle autumn mood of love, all that full flowering summer love with which she greeted him on that first birthday."

A SEWERAGE CONFERENCE.

The Commissioners Meet the Mayor and Council to Talk Matters Over.

Commissioners Advise that Mr. McBean be Not Released from His Contract.

The Council Passes the $300,000 By-law to Raise Funds for Sewerage Purposes.

By invitation Hon. J. H. Turner and John Teague, sewerage commissioners, and City Engineer Mohun, met with the mayor and council yesterday to discuss sewerage matters.

The mayor read the following letter from Mr. McBean, the consideration of which was one of the principal objects of the meeting:

To His Worship the Mayor and Board of Aldermen:—

GENTLEMEN,—Respecting my contract with your honorable body for the construction of sewers in the city, your attention is invited to the following particulars:

Your honorable body and those who are acquainted with the work of laying the present sewers, will doubtless remember that last summer the progress of the work was seriously retarded by the absence of pipe when most urgently required. This occasioned loss and no little inconvenience to me at the time.

This year had a by-law providing additional funds been submitted to the ratepayers and received their sanction, say in March, the work could have been prosecuted with vigor and dispatch during that portion of the year when such work can be done to the best advantage to all parties concerned.

The passage of such by-law has not, however, been proposed until now, when, if passed, and if my present connection with the work were to continue, the contract could not be pushed forward with any degree of satisfaction to either your honorable body or myself until next year.

This, of course, would mean to me no inconsiderable loss both of time and money.

I have therefore now to request that your honorable body will be pleased to cancel my contract in accordance with clauses 38, 39 and 48.

I am willing that the corporation should retain possession of the $20,000 deposit at present in your possession, until the expiration of six months from the date of cancellation of the contract and will undertake to keep the sewers I have constructed in good order and repair for that time.

I have the honor to be
Your obedient servant,
ALEXANDER MCBEAN.

The mayor after reading the document remarked that it said nothing about connections.

Ald. McKillican said he was authorized to state that Mr. McBean, if released from contract, would be responsible for the working of the system for six months after connections were made.

Mr. Turner expressed it as his opinion that it would be a very bad thing for the city to take the contract off Mr. McBean's hands. He questioned if it could be finished on as reasonable terms. Mr. McBean had had difficulties to contend with and he considered he had done well in carrying on the work, although there was objection to the labor he employed. It would have been better if the city could have provided the means to carry on the work as intended at first. The proceeds of the loan and interest, he explained, amounted to $264,490, and the contract was awarded for $249,970. This latter amount was increased by the contract with the Terra Cotta Company by $54,011, and again increased by $50,000 by deciding to deepen the sewers five feet all round; making a total outlay for the limit decided on of $353,981. The total amount provided up to date was $192,418; making pipe joints, $5008; Terra Cotta Company, $20,053; preliminary expenses, $10,677; salaries and sundaries $19,746, leaving a balance on hand of $2500. Mr. Mohun informed him that the present work could be completed for $2000, and it would be ready in a week or ten days for a thorough test, which he thought the works should be given to secure the confidence of the citizens in its efficency.

Mayor Beaven enquired what the difficulty had been in regard to putting in branches when the mains were being laid. The statute gave authority for this.

Mr. Mohun stated that the city barristers had been asked if the city could compel property owers to put in connections, and a negative reply was given.

His Worship said that was a different point. There was nothing, however, to prevent the branches being carried to the street lines, if connections were not made with houses.

Mr. Mohun explained that a plan approximately showing the work was posted and the by-law was voted on by the ratepayers. No connections were shown in this plan and the commissioners did not know the money was voted for the putting in of connections.

Ald. Styles asked what was the object in building on the outskirts of the city and not providing for the business portions of it.

Mr. Mohun stated that the business portion of the city was temporarily provided for, and it was understood that $300,000 more would be required to complete the system. If this amount had been voted as was expected the whole system might have been completed in October.

Mr. Turner did not consider the business portion of the city was as much in need of sewerage as the residential part, while Ald. Baker was of the opposite opinion; and he thought the connections should have been made as the mains were laid.

Ald. Hall advised that a test of the system be made to see that it was all right.

Mr. Teague was of the same opinion as Mr. Turner with regard to allowing Mr. McBean to finish the contract.

Ald. Styles—Then he must continue until the $2500 is spent.

Mr. Teague—Yes, if the further necessary money is provided he will have to continue and finish the work within the limits specified, at the rate contracted

Ald. Humber asked if pouring water into the sewers would be considered giving them a test. He thought they should be tried with the sort of matter they were supposed to carry.

Mr. Mohun assured the alderman the system would carry more than it was necessary for it to do, and Mr. Turner pointed out that automatic syphons would be supplied, which would give all the power necessary.

Ald. Styles asked how about paying for connections?

Mr. Mohun suggested that the city might put them in and charge an equal rate to all.

CONCUSSION DID IT.

A report from Mr. Mohun was read regarding the breakage or collapse of a number of 20 inch sewer pipes on Johnson street and Store street. The concussion from blasting was assigned as the cause, and Mr. Mohun's opinion in this matter was concurred in by G. A. Keefer, E. A. Wilmot and E. G. Tilton and others.

Ald. Styles asked if there would not be danger of further breakage in making connections.

Mr. Mohun assured him that that would be provided for.

The mayor asked Mr. Teague if he did not think the loan would be affected if Mr. McBean were not released. There was complaint made against the labor he employed.

Mr. Teague did not think the loan would be adversely affected, but the contrary.

Ald. McKillican thought Mr. McBean had been unjustly abused by the council.

Ald. Lovell could not see that the city could afford to let Mr. McBean throw up the contract until he completed all connections with the outlet.

Mr. Mohun stated that there was not a piece of the system that was not in connection with the outlet at Clover Point.

Mr. Bragg asked if the sewers were being finished according to specifications.

Mr. Mohun answered that they were as far as he knew, but he would be able to answer definitely next month.

The mayor then thanked the commissioners for attending the conference and the meeting adjourned.

IN THE COUNCIL CHAMBER.

The mayor and council immediately took their places in the council chamber, and business was proceeded with.

His Worship stated that he considered the advisability of asking an increased for the purposes of the Board of Health. It looked very much as if $50,000 would not be enough. The rate per day at the Jubilee Hospital at the present time was about $200 per day. At Ross Bay the number of suspects was being reduced every day and the expense consequently lessened, but he had believed if the disease continued to September there would not be sufficient funds. Then it must be remembered that cholera was on the Asiatic shores and might have to be dealt with here. For these reasons he had decided to return the $50,000 loan by-law, under section 22 of the Municipal Act, for reconsideration.

After some discussion, on motion of Ald. McKillican, seconded by Ald. Baker, the by-law was amended by striking out the sum of $50,000 and inserting $75,000, the members voting unanimously in favor of the change. Other slight amendments incident upon this change were also made.

SEWER BY-LAW PASSED.

Moved by Ald. Lovell, seconded by Ald. Hunter, that the report of the committee of the whole, on the by-law to raise $300,000 for sewerage purposes, be now adopted and passed by the council.

Alds. McKillican, Lovell and Hall thought the central school should be included in the limit covered by the by-law.

Ald. Humber opposed the by-law. If a brick system had been put in at first, after spending $300,000 a like amount would not be required to make the system of use, he said.

Ald. Munn asked if there was authority to assess the property in the limits affected by the system, to meet the interest and sinking fund for the loan.

Ald. Hunter,—I consulted the city solicitor, and he says the city has the power.

Ald. Munn said there could be no objection to the by-law if only those who would be benefited by the system were to be taxed for it.

Ald. Styles thought the concussion thereory advanced as the cause of the breaking of the pipes on Johnson street might burst the whole system.

Ald. Baker said he would oppose the by-law as it would require $220,000 more to put in connections.

The by-law was passed on the following division:

Ayes—Ald. Hunter, Lovell, Munn, Hall and McKillican.

Nays—Ald. Bragg, Baker, Styles and Humber.

By resolution the date for polling on the by-law was fixed for August 22, and W. K. Bull was appointed returning officer, the usual polling places to be used.

NEW BY-LAW.

Ald Hunter introduced a by-law to provide for the assessment of real property benefited by improvements.

COMMITTEE REPORTS.

The finance committee reported recommending that accounts amounting to $1133.35 be paid. The report was received and the recommendation ordered to be carried out.

The fire wardens' report recommending the purchase of 150 feet more hose, and a hose expander. Report adopted.

The meeting then adjourned.

The people at the World's Dispensary of Buffalo, N. Y., have a stock-taking time once a year and what do you think they do? Count the number of bottles that've been returned by the men and women who say that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription didn't do what they said it would do.

And how many do you think they have to count. One in ten? Not one in five hundred!

Here are two remedies—one the "Golden Medical Discovery," for regulating and invigorating the liver and purifying the blood; the other, the hope of weekly womanhood: they've been sold for years, sold by the million bottles; sold under a positive guarantee, and not one in five hundred can say: "It was not the medicine for me!" DEAR MR. EDITOR.—I have a beautiful blue-eyed baby with such a firm, white skin, and when the smallpox broke out I was so frightened, and I was told he ought to be vaccinated, but then I looked at his rosy mouth and down into his laughing eyes and—there, Mr. Editor, my husband says that every mother's goose is a swan, and that editors are great, rough men, who don't care to hear about other people's babies, and that I ought to come to the point, and so I will. And the point is that Dr. Davie says he has ordered compulsory vaccination of all persons living within a reasonable distance of infected houses. My husband read it out of the Colonist this morning, and it completely spoiled my breakfast. So if the smallpox breaks out near us, my beautiful blue-eyed cherub is to have nasty stuff put into his dear little arm by force. No, that he sha'n't, indeed. Mr. Editor, when I was a baby I was vaccinated, and I was very, very ill for years afterwards, and my father says it was a perfect miracle I recovered. The doctor put it down to bad lymph, or bad blood, but I'm sure my blood was just as good as anybody else's, and bluer than some people's I can name, so the lymph must have been bad. And if it was bad then it may be now, and why should I be forced to run any risk? To stop the smallpox? Well, my husband says that ten Vancouver doctors have made their awfuldavies that vaccination wont stop the smallpox, and so they had to call out the fire brigade. I'm sure I don't know what he means, but my boy shan't be vaccinated all the same. Mr. Editor, do please tell me, Have they power to vaccinate by compulsion? I have asked my husband, but all he said, he's a lawyer you know, was "Look here, sweetheart, an Englishman's house is his castle, and if anybody comes round to vaccinate you and the boy, put up your dukes and give him what for! What can he mean?

Yours anxiously,
A YOUNG MOTHER.

P.S.—Thank you awfully, Mr. Editor, for putting this in.

THE PROPOSED CHANGES.

The secretary read the following letter from the city clerk:—

8th August, 1892.

H. M. Yates, Esq., Secretary Provincial Royal Jubilee Hospital:

SIR:—I am instructed to say in reply to your letter of the 2nd inst., that the Mayor thought he had explained the general proposition of the council to be to take over the Provincial Royal Jubilee Hospital and make it a city hospital, carried on and maintained by the municipal authorities in the same manner as other city institutions.

The council have not yet been favored with the views of your board, but add that in the event of this being consummated within a reasonable period, they propose that the corporation should assume the mortgage and floating debt, the furnishing and working accounts, supplies, etc., as published in your last report, recognizing, however, any changes which may have taken place in the figures on the same principle during the interval between the preparation of the report and the date of the actual transfer.

With regard to the $20,000 granted by the Legislature to the building fund. Whilst it is incontrovertible that the people of Victoria are entitled to a portion of the expenditure of Provincial funds, derivable as they are principally from loans, Dominion subsidies and sale of public property, still should the Government deem it essential, the council would consent to the corporation refunding this $20,000 to the Provincial treasury.

The rest of the funds having been almost all obtained by various methods from the people of this city, the assumption of the debt by the corporation of which they are a part will relieve them of their present liability and spread the debt over the whole tax paying people within the city limits.

The council think that placing the hospital under municipal authority is in accordance with the modern view as to the management of such institutions, and tends to give the people of the city an interest in its success, making it what it should be—a place for the treatment of diseases of all kinds, and causing it to be strong, financially and otherwise.

I have the honor to be,
Your obedient servant,
W. J. DOWLER,
C. M. C.

The president made the following suggestion in lieu of the Mayor's proposition:—

To the Directors of the Provincial Royal Jubilee Hospital:

GENTLEMEN:—I herewith present for your consideration in lieu of the proposition suggested by His Worship Mayor Beaven, "that the city authorities should assume control of the management of the Provincial Royal Jubilee Hospital," an outline of a scheme which may meet with the approval of the Provincial Government, the Municipal Council, the Hospital Directors and be sanctioned by the citizens of Victoria.

First.—That no substantial change in the present form of management of the hospital shall be considered, but that, should an understanding be arrived at between the municipal authorities and the hospital directors, assented to by the Provincial Government, then the city shall be entitled to three representatives on the directorate of the hospital.

Second.—That the Act of Incorporation shall be amended so as to increase the number of directors to 21, or maintained at 18 by reducing the elected directors to nine.

Third.—That the municipality shall provide the funds for the purchase of the "Rithet" land and the erection of necessary buildings for the care of smallpox patients.

Fourth.—That in view of the difficulties of providing drainage for the hospital and the large outlay necessary to lay pipes to connect with the city system, and taking into consideration that the erection of a crematory was favorably commented upon by the board for the destruction of the hospital sewage, the directors assent to the placing of the city crematory on the extreme eastern end of the land to be purchased.

Fifth.—That the care of smallpox patients shall be assumed by the hospital the same as any other infectious disease at no special cost to the city, except when epidemic in its nature, and guards, if necessary, shall be provided by the city at its cost, when asked for.

Sixth.—The city shall pay to the hospital a monthly sum, which in the aggregate, shall be equal to the total of the yearly Government grant, or such amount as may be agreed upon.

Seventh.—That sufficient land shall be given to the city for the erection of an "Old Peoples' Home," to be located either on the present quarantine ground or upon the site of the "French Hospital property," as may be determined.

Yours,
JOSHUA DAVIES.

There was a long discussion as to whether the matter should be settled immediately or given more consideration and an answer given in a week.

After various motions had been put and lost the following was carried:

Moved by Mr. Baker, seconded by Mr. Byrnes, that the communication of the corporation be acknowledged in suitable terms, and that the consideration of the report be deferred until Thursday, and in the meantime copies of the correspondence be furnished to each director.

Mr. Chudley, in connection with the financial statement, drew attention to the insurance on the hospital. There is $30,000 on the buildings, which cost $67,000, and $5,000 on the furniture which cost $15,000. It was decided to place another $2,500 on the furniture.

The following figures from the treasurer's report shows the entire cost of the Jubilee quarantine station to date:

Supplies of every description	$ 5,672 24
Erection of buildings and tents, including cost of material and labor, etc.	2,898 09
Salaries for the whole staff (approx)	2,500 00
Total	$11,070 33

The tenders for supplies were referred to the supply committee, who will report next week.

Progressive Commerce.

Spot cash is the order of the day. We want money to carry on our large and increasing business. To get this money we have reduced prices for the vast stock we hold to an alarming extent. The immense reductions made would form a good capital for a small firm. Thirty to fifty per cent. discount on $150,000 worth of stock is one of the boldest things attempted yet in the province. Yet we are doing it for these reasons: We are buying enormously, paying promptly for our goods, wish to increase our connection and build up the biggest trade in B. C. Our sale commenced on Monday, and is forging ahead. Ladies, you want a bedroom, parlor, or drawing room suite, or one of our lovely sideboards, or a comfortable, artistic chair, or a bright and pretty carpet, or many things in crockery, glassware, lamps and cutlery. Sehl-Hastie-Erskine, 66 and 68 Government street, will sell them to you at far less than auction prices. *

THAT OTHER DISEASE.

TO THE EDITOR,—We all rejoice very much at the rapid way we are getting over this smallpox business, but how about "that other disease" we are so badly suffering from? Thank goodness we don't often get it here, but it is very common in Russia. They have not had a bad outbreak of it in England since the time of James the Second. You can always tell it by the symptoms—ignorance and injustice—and it generally produces great eruptions on the body politic. It was very bad in England in the time of the Stuarts, and Dr. Cromwell and Dr. Hampden then diagnosed it as "tyranny." We have only got it here in a mild form; still it is awful bad and they call it "Davieism." Can't anything be done for it? Can't some of the doctors send to the Old Country for some "Pure British Bull Dog Lymph" and vaccinate us all? There might be some pluck and public spirit in the people here then. Something must be done or we shall all be down with it. If not stopped it may become epidemic.

SPORTING INTELLIGENCE.

Matters of Interest Going Forward in the Sporting World, Here and Elsewhere.

ALL ROUND ATHLETES.

British Columbians are very fond of out-door sports of all kinds. I am very much surprised that some of the athletic clubs or societies don't have an annual individual all round athletic exhibition for the championship of B. C. (10 events), to be open to all amateurs who have made their homes in British Columbia for a period of three years or more. Such a meeting would bring together a large number of athletes from all parts of the province. The proper place to hold such a meeting would be at Victoria, the capital of British Columbia. A very good time would be about the end of September; or the all round athletic competition could be held in connection with the agricultural exhibition in October (prizes, medals). No doubt a large number would enter if the events placed on the programme don't require too much training, and the standard (there should be a standard) of the events are not too high. There is just as much amusement for the public (in fact more, as a larger number will enter) if the standards are not so very high. Young men can follow their daily occupations and practice a little in the evenings to qualify for the events. The following rules (or something like these) to govern the events: No weights to be used in jumping. First place in any competition to entitle the competitor to five points, second place three points, and third place one point. The competitor winning the largest number of points to be declared the winner of the championship. If any winner fails to reach the standard in any three of the ten competitions he must be disqualified, and all points made by him will be void. I beg to submit the following events which would probably do very well for the first year, viz.: 100 yards run, standard 11½ seconds; running long jump, standard 17 feet; running high jump, standard 4 feet 10 inches; putting 16 lb. shot, 20 feet; throwing 16 lb. hammer, 70 feet; one half-mile walk ("fair toe and heel"), 5 minutes; pole vault, 7 feet 10 inches; standing long jump, 9 feet; running hop, step and jump, 36 feet; 300 yards run, 37 seconds. I have not given any long distance events, as they require a long time to train.

AMATEUR ATHLETE.

THE OAR.

THE FAITHFUL FEW.

A few of the four-oared crews of the James Bay Athletic Club, who are to compete in the regatta on August 20th, are taking time by the forelock and giving earnest attention to practice now. Others again say that they can get into condition and discover one another's peculiarities of style in about a week or 10 days. Many others again think these last will be exceedingly clever if they do. In regard to training it might be mentioned that the "crack crews of the world," Oxford, Cambridge, Harvard and Yale do not think six months' practice too much. They begin rowing in the inclement weather of January and keep it up with great steadiness all through the spring. When the race comes they know one another's style to perfection, and the whole eight fall upon their oars with the precision of clock-work, obey the stroke's orders with the utmost celerity, and indeed there is very little they do not know that they ought to know in order to make the boat get first to the line. Men who will not practice should not expect miracles on race-day. If they see crews which have trained faithfully going ahead they ought to recognize in it merely the reward of that faithfulness. The strokes of the various fours are now anxious to have all their men turn up for practice punctually on time. It is not fair to keep comrades waiting around for unpunctual people.

THE GYMNASIUM.

PROSPECT FOR THE WINTER.

It is probable that the executive committee of the J.B.A.A. will greatly improve the already fine gymnasium of that institution this winter, by the introduction of some new apparatus and possibly the appointing of a qualified instructor. These questions have been informally discussed frequently this summer and it would be no surprise if they reached fruition in the fall. Another interesting proposition for the coming winter season is a much-talked-of series of assaults-at-arms, to be given by members of the club in the gymnasium. Among the members are several smart amateur boxers and fencers and performers on the horizontal and parallel bars and rings, so that a very interesting exhibition of manly exercises would be quite possible. The club are contemplating putting in a first-class pneumatic rowing machine, with which the oarsmen can keep themselves in good form in bad weather. The James Bay Athletic Association is prospering beyond the brightest hopes of those who have so manfully helped it through its dark days.

YACHTING.

DELEGATES TO FAIRHAVEN.

The Victoria Yacht club met last evening in Secretary Elliott's office, Bank of B. C. building, to discuss the proposed formation of an international club, and the sending of delegates to Fairhaven this month with the object of amalgamating with the Sound clubs. Captain Charles occupied the chair. The members who had the drafting of the constitution and bylaws failed to attend. The following delegates were chosen to represent the club at Fairhaven and empowered to do all things necessary to enroll the Victoria club among those in the international association: Commodore Cox, Capt. Foote, A. Scroggs, J. Seely, M. Piper and G. A. McTavish. Quarters for the club will be chosen by a specially appointed committee.

BILLIARDS.

PARIS, Aug. 9.—At Vignaux's studio last evening Garnier defeated Schaefer in a balk-line game of 200 up, after receiving a concession of 50 points. This proved too much of a handicap for Schaefer, who only succeeded in scoring 104 points. Schaefer's biggest break was 82 and Garnier's 56.

Slosson is now having things all his own way, while Ives seems to have struck a streak of bad luck, being defeated yesterday afternoon in a balk-line game of 200 points up.

MISCELLANEOUS.

A REMARKABLE CRIB HAND.

At George Fairbrother's saloon, a few days ago, Mr. Ed. Spencer engaged in a quiet game of cribbage with Mr. George McCue, an old friend of Alaska fame, and held the extraordiny hand of twenty-nine (29). After discarding for his crib, Spencer retained three fives and the Jack of Clubs, turning up the five of clubs, making exactly twenty-nine points, (29). This is the greatest hand that can be held at six card cribbage and is a most remote and astonishing occurrence, which is scarcely met with in a lifetime. Hoyle, in his examples, describes this hand as the maximum score at this game.

"COMPULSION" A FARCE.

TO THE EDITOR:—On Saturday afternoon last I went to the E. & N. R.R. station in the hope of enjoying an hour or two in the country after the week's work. About ten minutes before the train started, a young man, presumably Dr. Watt, with a city policeman in close attendance, appeared in the car immediately in front of me and vaccinated two or three people. I was standing on the platform with about half a dozen others. The first gentleman, in answer to Dr. Watt, said he had been vaccinated twice and had had smallpox since, whereupon the medical inspector raised the gentleman's hat and glanced at his forehead. He did not say what he was looking for, nor is it quite certain that he found it. Four or five other gentlemen, when asked if they had certificates such as the inspector held in his hand, replied "no," but one said they had something signed by Dr. Hasell. My turn came. "Have you been vaccinated?" "Yes, about thirty years ago." "That is not recent enough," said my interrogator, "you must be done again, or you can't go on this train." I informed him of my determination not to be done again, and of an equal determination to use the right the railway company had sold me. Then the majesty of the law looked at me. I do not blame him, poor fellow, for he was ordered there by some other dupe. Dr. Watt finished off the other occupants of the car and returned to me. He reiterated that I must submit to his cowpox, or leave. I offered to leave the train if he purchased my ticket, but he declined.

All at once he was seized with a great desire for my name. I refused to satisfy him at first, but, eventually, I gave him my card. He left the train at Victoria West and I proceeded on my journey.

Now, sir, what I want to point out is this. I might have taken my cue from those who were interviewed before me. I wish particularly to say that I do not impugn those gentlemen's statements; I believe they told the truth, but they did not "produce a certificate of vaccination for examination by Dr. Watt, medical inspector, or show the marks of recent vaccination," nor did they "submit to vaccination before leaving," nor were they "treated as suspects."

Assuming that the notice referring to persons leaving the city by train or boat has the force of law, who is this Dr. Watt who dares to say to one citizen you must be vaccinated or leave the train, while to another he gives a "permit," and a third passes by?

I spoke to an official of the railroad on this matter and he said he was tired of hearing so many complaints from passengers, and, that his company would, of course, do nothing until a test case was made.

No one complains of the railroad company, but what man can submit to such bulldozing?

If this stripling, who is dubbed "medical inspector," wishes to rise in the honorable profession to which he has attached himself, and really desires to become a thinking, conscientious man, let him read, mark, learn and inwardly digest the works of Creighton, Crookshank, Ricord, Germann, Desjardins and Gunn. When he has done that, I shall feel happy to name six other eminent physicians who have devoted many years of laborious research to the question of vaccination. Dr. Gunn, of New York, in his book "Vaccination, its Fallacies and Evils," p. 13, declares, "the appalling evils that have been and are still produced by it, are sufficient to condemn the practice as a crime."

Dr. Watt has a splendid chance just now, probably his first, of seeing how the Jennerian rite develops. If he is wise he will make the most of his opportunities.

There will continue to be differences of opinion in regard to the value of vaccination, but there can only be one opinion among lovers of liberty and justice, as to its compulsory enforcement. To coerce people into being vaccinated would be to commit a wrong without legal or moral justification.

A QUESTION OF LEGALITY.

TO THE EDITOR:—At Ainsworth on June 13th the gold commissioner, Mr. Napoleon Fitzstubbs, sentenced Robert Stewart to one month's imprisonment for the theft of a pick and shovel, the property of Dr. Hendryx of the Pilot Bay Smelting Company. Stewart was set at liberty by order of Mr. Fitzstubbs on July 8th, or 25 days after sentence. I want to know, sir, if any person holding the authority possessed by Mr. Fitzstubbs can legally liberate a prisoner before the term to which he has been sentenced expires. Perhaps you or some of your many readers can give me this information. Yours truly,

D. M. GORDON.

CARD OF THANKS.

THE UNDERSIGNED BEGS TO THANK those of his neighbors who, whether by sensible advice, or by fighting the fire on the roof, or at the gable window, by the most strenuous effort saved—and then only just saved—his house. He would also thank those officers of the Fire Department present, who with a very short supply of water did all they could. He would more particularly mention Messrs. Laker, Bryden, Snyder, Nathan, Savill and Phillips. These gentlemen saved his house, not the Icelanders.
